THE LIFE

POMBOS was born in the city, that's why we understand all your needs. We know exactly how you like it!

We work with top designers, trendsetters and utility experts, keeping in mind all the things that we hate about regular bags, to develop products that are not only stunning, but also functional. Before creating, we have experienced the fast-paced urban lifestyle, the rush, and have travelled around the world. We think in materials that are fashionable and resistant, that reflect the personality of the brand and let you be just who you are.

We add the extra element to each design in order to make it special and different, we don't just produce eye-catching bags; better than that, we are the full package.
